

PRESCHOOL PROGRAMS ENROLLING NOW

State Preschool, Head Start and Los Angeles Universal Preschool (LAUP)

Attention: Parents, Foster Parents and Relative Caregivers of Preschool-Age Children

Children who participate in high quality preschool programs are better ready to learn when they enter kindergarten and the effects of a high quality preschool program are often long lasting. Parents, foster parents, and relative caregivers are encouraged to enroll their three- and four-year-old children now for classes beginning in August and September of 2009 and ending in June of 2010. If interested, act fast as programs fill up!

State Preschool

---

What is State Preschool?

- Free part-day (3½ hours) comprehensive child development program.
- Generally operates from August through June or September through June.
- Serves three- to four-year-old children from low-income families residing in the local community.
- Priority given to families with open cases with the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS), as space is available.
- Provides free meals and snacks.
- Also, provides parent education and encourages parent participation.
- Refers families, as needed, to health and social services.

** Some State Preschool Programs operate a full day for income-eligible parents needing to maintain employment, meet work participation requirements, or participate in education or job training.

What will I need to enroll my child?

- A copy of the child's original birth certificate.
- Child's current immunization record.
- Current address verification, such as utility bills.
- Documents to determine family size, such as birth certificates.
- Physician's Report Form provided by the State Preschool Program, indicating that the child has received a physical exam and is current with immunizations.

Head Start

What is Head Start?

- Free part-day (at least 3½ hours) child development program for low-income and disabled preschoolers.
- Generally operates from September to June; some full-year programs are available.
- Serves three- to five-year-old children from low-income families residing in the local community, with priority given to four-year-olds.
- Priority given to families most in need, including families at risk and/or in crisis, and children with disabilities.
- Comprehensive services, including social services, health, mental health, nutrition and parent involvement.
- Families receiving public assistance and children in foster care are eligible even if their family income exceeds the guidelines.

** Some Head Start Programs operate a full day for income-eligible parents needing to maintain employment, meet work participation requirements, or participate in education or job training.

What will I need?

- A copy of the child's original birth certificate.
- Child's current immunization record with TB test.
- Documentation of child's disability, if applicable.
- Documentation of family at risk or in crisis (i.e. court referral, treatment center, etc.), if applicable.
- Evidence of family's annual income.
- Proof of current address.
- Current physical report from child's doctor.

Los Angeles Universal Preschool (LAUP)

What is LAUP?

- Part-day (3½ hours) child development programs. (LAUP is free to families under the supervision of the County of Los Angeles Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) and Probation Department. Families not associated with DCFS or Probation may be required to pay an investment fee depending on their income and the program in which they enroll their child.)
- Generally operates from September to June; some offer summer programs as well.
- Serves four-year-old children regardless of family income.

LAUP operates in existing child care and development programs, including publicly subsidized centers, private centers, faith-based programs, Head Starts, and family child care homes. Enrollment in some programs – State Preschool and Head Start – is limited to families that meet the eligibility factors described in the previous sections of this flyer.

What will I need to enroll my child?

In general, you will need to provide documents similar to those required for State Preschool and Head Start Programs. However, the required documents may vary based on the type of program for which you are eligible and wish to enroll your child.

How Do I find a Preschool Program?

To learn more about State Preschool, Head Start and LAUP and receive referrals to programs in your local community, contact your local Child Care Resource and Referral Agency (R&R). Enclosed with this flyer is a map to help you select the R&R serving your community. R&Rs help families by providing referrals to an array of licensed child care and development programs for children from birth and up and by providing resources and referrals to low-income families eligible for child care subsidies. Be sure to ask for referrals to State Preschool, Head Start and/or LAUP when you call. You may also receive referrals to Head Start Programs by calling, toll-free, 1-877-PRE-K-KID (773-5543) or locate an LAUP site by visiting their Web site at www.laup.net.

In addition to your local R&R, information on finding and selecting high quality child care and development services is available from the National Association for the Education of Young Children at www.naeyc.org and the National Association for Family Child Care at www.nafcc.org.

We hope that you will take this opportunity to enroll your preschool age child in a free State Preschool Program, Head Start Program or LAUP.
