

Los Angeles County Commission for Women

JANET ELLIOT MUMMEY, ESQ.
2023 RESILIENCE SCHOLARSHIP

*Applications are due
March 31, 2023*

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. First-time applicants must reside within Los Angeles County.
2. Students must attend an accredited university, community college, or post-secondary certification program and provide proof of enrollment.
3. High school seniors (12th graders) must graduate with their high school diploma or GED by June 2023 and attend a university, community college, or vocational/trade school in Fall 2023.
4. Student applicants must have a minimum cumulative 2.0 GPA.
5. Prior applicants can reapply and be considered by verifying continued enrollment in an academic or vocational program.
6. Continuous applicants enrolled at a college or university are not required to maintain residency in Los Angeles County to be considered.

A COMPLETED APPLICATION SHOULD INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

- ✓ Scholarship application completed Online
- ✓ Two essay statements
- ✓ Two letters of recommendation
- ✓ Unofficial transcripts, a recent report card, or a screenshot of a class schedule that illustrates the name of the school and the name and contact information of a school representative

HOW TO APPLY

Complete an application ONLINE and submit your supplemental documents via email to:

- ✓ laccw@bos.lacounty.gov

APPLY TODAY!

or

Visit: <http://laccw.lacounty.gov/>