

Alice S. Petrossian

Alice S. Petrossian was appointed in 2011 by 5th District Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich. She immigrated to the United States at the age of nine. Commissioner Petrossian has multiple Teaching and Administrative credentials, a Masters Degree in Education Administration and has completed course work towards a PH.D. in Educational Policy at the University of Southern California. She is currently President of the Association of California School Administrators. Commissioner Petrossian retired from the Pasadena Unified School District as Chief Academic Officer-Deputy Superintendent. She has a special passion in working for and with disenfranchised, minority and limited English speaking students. She has a been happily married for over 43 years, has two sons, a daughter-in-law and three grandchildren.