

Kafi D. Blumenfield

Kafi D. Blumenfield is a social justice change-maker. Kafi's inclusive vision of the world allows her to build bridges, inspire transformative change, and ensure that equity is at the heart of her leadership and impact.

Whether as the first Executive Director of Discovery Cube LA or President/CEO of the Liberty Hill Foundation or Deputy Director of Neighbor to Neighbor, Kafi has mentored dozens of change agents from diverse backgrounds and collaborated with them to initiate systems and create programs that expand opportunity and build more equitable communities. She believes that one test of leadership is the ability to foster and uplift the leadership of those around her in order to drive lasting change.

Kafi is most proud of her efforts to support multi-ethnic coalitions advancing inclusive agendas for social, political and economic prosperity. Over the last decade she has led fundraising efforts that resulted in millions of dollars for organizations serving the needs of Angelenos and organizing them to harness their own power to advance change.

Kafi is a board member of Tides, the Community Foundation of the Virgin Islands and the James Irvine Foundation as well as an advisory board member of River LA, Pomona College's Draper Center, Anti-Recidivism Coalition and Project X.

Kafi is also a member of giving circles like the XX Fund, which enables women and girls to support organizations dedicated to helping women and girls reach their potential and strive for economic justice. She is an appointee to the California Commission on the Status of Women and Girls.

Kafi's work has been recognized by organizations such as LAANE, the National Women's Political Caucus LA Westside, National Council of Negro Women, and the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force. She holds a law degree from UCLA and a B.A. from Pomona College. She and her husband live in Woodland Hills with their two children.
